Course Description/Rationale:

Drawing 1 will focus on introducing students to the fundamentals of solid drawing techniques used in the production of works of art.

Concord University Educational Goal(s) This should address at least one of the areas (skills, knowledge, or attitude) for each course. Similar courses with different sections should have the same goal(s).

This course directly supports Concord University General Studies Educational Goal #2.6. An awareness of the aesthetic principles, methods, materials, and media employed in artistic performance and the creation of works of art and literature.

National Standards (if applicable) For example, NCTM, IRA, CAEP, etc.:

N/A

Course Goals:

To provide insight to the use of a variety of drawing techniques and principles.

To guide students through the process of completing exercises intended to increase the student's visual vocabulary.

To instill a sense of confidence in the use of solid drawing technique in the creation of works of art.

Learning Outcomes:

Students will be able to recognize and implement a variety of drawing techniques.

Students will be able to create multiple works of art independently

Students will be able to explain their process of creating artworks using the appropriate related vocabulary.

Course Requirements:

Attendance with required supplies, as well as any due out-of-class assignments, is required every class session.

A grade of C or better is required for credit for art majors.

Grading Policy and Scale, Make-up Policy, Late Work:

Deadlines:

Course participants are expected to meet all deadlines for full credit. Deadlines will be announced during class sessions one or two weeks in advance. Additionally, assigned drawing mediums, papers or boards are required.

Grading Scale:

90% – 100% = A

80% – 89% = B

70% – 79% = C

60% – 69% = D

59% and below = F

Deadlines:

You are responsible for meeting all deadlines.

Problems will arise. Try to stay ahead of schedule. Don't hesitate to ask for help. After the deadline is not the time to ask for help.

Class/Online Attendance Policy:

Regular class attendance is part of a student's academic obligation at Concord.

Irregular attendance may affect academic performance adversely and is detrimental to the atmosphere of a class. (See University Catalog Academic Policies and Procedures.)

Be present for every class meeting. Be on time for every class meeting. Your instructor cannot instruct you or quantify your progress if you are not in class.

A student may miss only three classes before failing.

You are responsible for obtaining information presented during your absence.

Do not be absent on quiz, exam, or due dates without an excuse.

Make-up Policy: Alternative assignments/deadlines will be made at the discretion of the professor and are not at all guaranteed.

Course Timeline (Schedule of Assignments/Assessments/Presentations):

Accessibility/Accommodations:

Concord University is committed to responding to the needs of students with disabilities as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act. Please inform your instructor at the beginning of the class semester if you have a disability and are requesting accommodations. It is your responsibility to self-disclose that you are requesting accommodations. The University and instructor will provide you with a reasonable accommodation. You should register with CU's Disability Services Office, located in the Athens campus Jerry and Jean Beasley Student Center, Bottom Floor, across from the Campus Post Office. The Disability Services Office phone is 304-384-6086 or you can email the Director, Nancy Ellison, at nellison@concord.edu for assistance.

Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty is morally unacceptable as well as destructive to the learning and teaching atmosphere. Academic dishonesty includes the giving or receiving of improper help on examinations or assignments, falsifying documents, and plagiarism (the act of stealing and using, as one's own, the ideas or the expression of the ideas of another). Such dishonesty can lead to a variety of penalties — including but not limited to failure of assignment, failure of course, loss of institutional privileges, or dismissal from the University. (See University Catalog Academic Policies and Procedures.)

Concord University Honor Code

A Concord University Honor Code was approved by students, staff, faculty, administration, and the CU Board of Governors. The Code states:

"As a member of the Concord University Community I will act with honesty and integrity in accordance with our fundamental principles and I will respect myself and others while challenging them to do the same."

The Honor Code is intended to unite the Concord community behind a culture of honesty, integrity, and civility.

Class/Online Attendance Policy

Regular class attendance is part of a student's academic obligation at Concord. Irregular attendance may affect academic performance adversely and is detrimental to the atmosphere of a class. (See University Catalog Academic Policies and Procedures.)

Emergency Alert System

In an effort to increase safety and security on our campus, Concord University encourages everyone to register for instant text message alerts. Alerts will only be used for security and safety notices. All students, faculty, and staff are eligible to receive text message alerts on their cell phones or email alerts. Please contact the IT Help Desk for further assistance (304-384-5291).

Emergency Information

Emergency/courtesy telephones are located at the main entrance of each residence hall and at various other locations on campus. Emergency telephones can be identified by the flashing blue light and will provide the user with a direct link to Public Safety at the press of a button. To report an on-campus emergency, call 304-384-5357 or 911. The Office of Public Safety is located on the bottom floor of the Rahall Technology Center. For further emergency information go to:

<http://www.concord.edu/administration/office-public-safety>.

Inclement Weather Policy

As a general policy, the University will remain in normal operations during adverse weather conditions. In the event of severe weather conditions, the following may occur:

University Closure

No students or employees are to report.

Classes Cancelled

Students do NOT report BUT employees are expected to report to work at their normal time.

Operating on an Inclement Weather Delay

Under this schedule, all 8 a.m. classes will start at 10 a.m. Students and faculty will follow the Inclement Weather Schedule. (See <http://www.concord.edu/emergency-alerts> for Athens/Beckley Inclement Weather Schedules.)

Announcements invoking the late schedule or other options referenced above are aired on area radio and television stations and are sent as text and email messages to those enrolled for this service.*

Student Conduct

In classrooms, online, laboratories, and during any activities that are part of course requirements, students are expected to observe reasonable rules of conduct.

Technology Services

Contact the CU Help Desk at extension 5291 from campus or 304-384-5291 off campus. You may also e-mail cuhelpdesk@concord.edu.

Miscellaneous:

Safety: If a student is found to be engaging in a classroom activity with disregard for safety procedures the student may be immediately dropped from the class. The student is responsible for his or her personal safety and wellbeing. If a student's actions cause harm to another individual the offending student will be held responsible.

PLEASE NOTE: This class looks at a diverse range of art without censorship. There may be times we look at work or express opinions that make you uncomfortable.

There may be times we look at work with nudity, an array of religious themes (both pro- and con-), violence, and with diverse racial, gender, and sexuality views. Please conduct yourself maturely. You do not have to agree, but you are expected to disagree articulately and with respect.
