1. Participate in the play production either as an actor or in a technical aspect. You may focus on sets, lights, costumes or sound. You may also be asked to work on a technical aspect in addition to your acting work.
2. Rehearsals will be set at a mutually convenient time.
3. Be available for performance, rehearsals and tech rehearsals
4. Make a commitment to safety both onstage and off.

Grading Policy and Scale, Make-up Policy, Late Work

Grading - The grading is simple. Most of you will earn an A. If you complete your responsibilities, you will earn that A. If you are chronically late or cause serious inconvenience to others in the cast, you will earn a B or possibly a C. But, the instructor will have a conversation with you before giving you this grade and give you the opportunity to improve. If you are not able to participate, you can speak to the instructor about withdrawing from the class. If you do not participate and you do not withdraw, then you will earn an F.

Communication:

It is YOUR responsibility to communicate with the director of the play and the instructor. If you need to miss a rehearsal or class time, please talk to the director. Communication is imperative when emergencies occur. Messages will be sent to you through email. If, for some reason, you are not getting messages, you should call the instructor. Phone numbers are provided at the beginning of this syllabus.
