Course Description/Rationale: A study of the nature and formation of criminal behavior, societal values and structure, personality and community factors in crime; types of criminality, criminal law and procedure. This course is a comprehensive review of deviant behavior, theories, law enforcement, community reactions, the adjudicatory system, corrections and numerous associated topics. This course is an upper level class and will be treated as such. You are expected to fulfill all requirements with minimal prompting by instructor and to actively participate in all class matters. Class periods will include in-class debates, lecture, guest speakers, and tours

Course Management System (Blackboard/Moodle or other systems): This course is shared with BSC and will not use Blackboard. Email is an absolute necessity to communicate and turn in assignments.

Hardware/Software Needed: NA

Text requirements: Criminology Today, an Integrative Introduction, 9th edition by Schmalleger ISBN 978-0-13-4749730

Concord University Educational Goal(s): Skill 5: An ability to evaluate elements, information, and ideas on the basis of appropriate criteria. Knowledge 1: An ability to discern the reciprocal influences of environments, cultural beliefs and attitudes, and societal institutions and practices. Knowledge 5: A recognition of the complex interactions between organisms, including human beings, and their environments.

National Standards: NA

Specific Learning Outcomes:

- Upon completion of Criminology/Sociology 303, students will understand the historical and societal impacts of Criminology through considering the origins and major theories.
- Students will combine current impacts of policy and protocols throughout the Criminal Justice system with the theoretical framework and research of the discipline. And to reflect these understandings in examinations, essays, discussions/debates.
- Students should develop an ability to interact with others and conduct civil considerations of social issues, culture, and social environments.
- Students will be given the opportunity to tour venues representing corrections, courts, and diversionary programs.

Grading Policy and Scale, Make-up Policy, Late Work: Make up and late submissions will be considered on a case by case basis, generally all assignments should be completed on time. Students are required to read the assigned chapters before coming to class so that any questions or comments can be addressed in the discussion. If students are unresponsive and have not read material, the instructor retains the right to give pop quizzes. The final grade for this course, without additional assignments, will be based on

Exam One 100 points (1/6 of final grade) Objective:
Multiple Choice/True & False with student's choice of short answer essays. Covering chapters 1-6 as well as class lectures and media reviewed.

Exam Two 100 points (1/6 of final grade) Objective:
Multiple Choice/True & False with student's choice of short answer essays. Covering chapters 7-9 as well as class lectures and media reviewed.

Exam Three 100 points (1/6 of final grade) Objective:
Multiple Choice/True & False with student's choice of short answer essays. Covering chapters 10-14 as well as class lectures and media reviewed.

Exam Four 100 points (1/6 of final grade) Essay
Examination combining the subjects, themes, and understandings from the text to this point and a review of a film noir allowing students to reflect changes in policing from the 1980s to today, theories that may explain criminal behavior, the role the media play in a guilty verdict, and credibility of eyewitness testimony.

Final Project/Final Exam—student's choice 100 points (1/6 of final grade) Students will have the opportunity to do a practical observational report utilizing the comprehensive knowledge of crime and criminal motives OR to take a Final Comprehensive Objective Exam: Multiple Choice/True & False with student's choice of short answer essays. Covering chapters 1-16 and Epilogue as well as class lectures and media reviewed.

“My Points” Sheet 100 points (1/6 of final grade) As a mechanism to allow students a significant non-test opportunity to earn points, each student will have a “My Points” worksheet to complete. Tours, events, fundraising, volunteer service, debates, and in class activities will afford many opportunities to fulfill the sheet and earn 100 points.

Your final grade for the course will be based on the following scale:

90-100=A

80-89=B

70-79=C

60-69=D

59 & Below=F

Accessibility/Accommodations: Concord University is committed to responding to the needs of students with disabilities as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act. Please inform your instructor at the beginning of the class semester if you have a disability and are requesting accommodations. It is your responsibility to self-disclose that you are requesting accommodations. The University and instructor will provide you with a reasonable accommodation. You should register with CU's Disability Services Office, located in the Athens campus Jerry and Jean Beasley Student Center, Bottom Floor, across from the Campus Post Office. The Disability Services Office phone is 304-384-6086 or you can email the Director, Nancy Ellison, at nellison@concord.edu for assistance.

Academic Dishonesty: Academic dishonesty is morally unacceptable as well as destructive to the learning and teaching atmosphere. Academic dishonesty includes the giving or receiving of improper help on examinations or assignments, falsifying documents, and plagiarism (the act of stealing and using, as one's own, the ideas or the expression of the ideas of another). Such dishonesty can lead to a variety of penalties — including but not limited to failure of assignment, failure of course, loss of institutional privileges, or dismissal from the University. (See University Catalog Academic Policies and Procedures.)

Concord University Honor Code: A Concord University Honor Code was approved by students, staff, faculty, administration, and the CU Board of Governors. The Code states:
"As a member of the Concord University Community I will act with honesty and integrity in accordance with our fundamental principles and I will respect myself and others while challenging them to do the same."
The Honor Code is intended to unite the Concord community behind a culture of honesty, integrity, civility.

Class/Online Attendance Policy: Your attendance in the class is required. Because CRIM/SOC 303 only meets in person once a week, you are allowed the "one time rule". Any day missed after that will require an original doctor's excuse. Illegitimate absences will result in 10% of your grade being deducted for each unexcused day. After three absences, you will be dropped from the course. Regular class attendance is part of a student's academic obligation at Concord. Irregular attendance may affect academic performance adversely and is detrimental to the atmosphere of a class. (See University Catalog Academic Policies and Procedures.)

Emergency Alert System: In an effort to increase safety and security on our campus, Concord University encourages everyone to register for instant text message alerts. Alerts will only be used for security and safety notices. All students, faculty, and staff are eligible to receive text message alerts on their cell phones or email alerts. Please contact the IT Help Desk for further assistance (304-384-5291).

Emergency Information: Emergency/courtesy telephones are located at the main entrance of each residence hall and at various other locations on campus. Emergency telephones can be identified by the flashing blue light and will provide the user with a direct link to Public Safety at the press of a button. To report an on-campus emergency, call 304-384-5357 or 911. The Office of Public Safety is located on the bottom floor of the Rahall Technology Center. For further emergency information go to:
<http://www.concord.edu/administration/office-public-safety>.

Inclement Weather Policy: As a general policy, the University will remain in normal operations during adverse weather conditions. In the event of severe weather conditions, the following may occur:

University Closure

No students or employees are to report.

Classes Cancelled

Students do NOT report BUT employees are expected to report to work at their normal time.

Operating on an Inclement Weather Delay

Under this schedule, all 8 a.m. classes will start at 10 a.m. Students and faculty will follow the Inclement Weather Schedule. (See <http://www.concord.edu/emergency-alerts> for Athens/Beckley Inclement Weather Schedules.)

Announcements invoking the late schedule or other options referenced above are aired on area radio and television stations and are sent as text and email messages to those enrolled for this service.*

Student Conduct: In classrooms, online, laboratories, and during any activities that are part of course requirements, students are expected to observe reasonable rules of conduct.

Sexual Harassment & Assault: Federal law, Title IX, and Concord University policy prohibits discrimination, harassment, and violence based on sex and gender (Including sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic/dating violence, stalking, sexual exploitation, and retaliation). If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you can receive confidential counseling support through the Concord University Counseling Center (304-384-5290). Alleged Violations can be reported non-confidentially to the Concord University Title IX Coordinator at 304-384-6327 or titleix@concord.edu. Reports to Campus Security can be made at (304-384-5357). As an employee at Concord University, I am a mandatory reporter which means I must report any sexual misconduct I am made aware of. This includes verbal or written (such as in an assignment) disclosures of sexual harassment or sexual assault.

Technology Services: Contact the CU Help Desk at extension 5291 from campus or 304-384-5291 off campus. You may also e-mail cuhelpdesk@concord.edu.
