Course Description/Rationale:

John Ford has long been esteemed as the finest of the Caroline playwrights, the generation of playwrights who followed Shakespeare in the years leading to the English Civil War. His plays are lush, violent and erotic, intimately concerned with the business of human desire, as well as with the interbleedings of the social, political and domestic economies of the later Renaissance. In this course we will examine Ford’s three great tragedies: The Broken Heart, Tis Pity She’s a Whore, and Perkin Warbeck. We will also be viewing Giuseppe Griffi’s (subtitled) 1972 film adaptation of Tis Pity She’s a Whore, Addio, Fratello Crudele.

Before we begin this semester, your professor offers a caveat: the dramatic corpus of John Ford is a challenging one, and engages with decidedly adult themes. Dictum sapienti sat est.

Course Requirements:

General Policies:

Attendance- Attendance in this course is mandatory; the accrual of more than six (6) unexcused absences during the semester may constitute failure of the course. You are expected to arrive for class on time and prepared to discuss the assignments. If you are ill, or if an emergency prevents you from attending a class, notify me and arrange to obtain any material or information missed on that day.

Assignments- Course essays are due on the date specified. In the event of extenuating circumstances, I may accept late essays, although those essays may be subject to a grade reduction.

Participation- Participation in class activities is vital. You are expected to read all assigned materials for this class, and you may on occasion be tested on them. In addition to this, you are expected to participate constructively in class discussions. Ideally, this will cause the course to be more productive for everyone.

Plagiarism- Plagiarism is the representation of the words or ideas of another writer as your own. I strongly caution you against this practice. Intentional plagiarism will result in failure of the course and is grounds for dismissal from the university. I encourage you to consult page 36 your Concord University Academic Catalog regarding plagiarism and to come to me with any questions you may have regarding the proper citation of sources.

Grading Policy and Scale:

Your final grade will be determined by combining the grades received on two writing assignments, your final exam, and your overall participation. The percentage value of each grade is as follows:

Midterm Essay	20%
Final Essay	50%
Final Exam	20%
Class Participation	10% (including in-class writings and quizzes)

Accessibility/Accommodations:

Concord University is committed to responding to the needs of students with disabilities as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act. Please inform your instructor at the beginning of the class semester if you have a disability and are requesting accommodations. It is your responsibility to self-disclose that you are requesting accommodations. The University and instructor will provide you with a reasonable accommodation. You should register with CU's Disability Services Office, located in the Athens campus Jerry and Jean Beasley Student Center, Bottom Floor, across from the Campus Post Office. The Disability Services Office phone is 304-384-6086 or you can email the Director, Nancy Ellison, at nellison@concord.edu for assistance.

Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty is morally unacceptable as well as destructive to the learning and teaching atmosphere. Academic dishonesty includes the giving or receiving of improper help on examinations or assignments, falsifying documents, and plagiarism (the act of stealing and using, as one's own, the ideas or the expression of the ideas of another). Such dishonesty can lead to a variety of penalties — including but not limited to failure of assignment, failure of course, loss of institutional privileges, or dismissal from the University. (See University Catalog Academic Policies and Procedures.)

Concord University Honor Code

A Concord University Honor Code was approved by students, staff, faculty, administration, and the CU Board of Governors. The Code states:

"As a member of the Concord University Community I will act with honesty and integrity in accordance with our fundamental principles and I will respect myself and others while challenging them to do the same."

The Honor Code is intended to unite the Concord community behind a culture of honesty, integrity, and civility.

Class/Online Attendance Policy

Regular class attendance is part of a student's academic obligation at Concord. Irregular attendance may affect academic performance adversely and is detrimental to the atmosphere of a class. (See University Catalog Academic Policies and Procedures.)

Emergency Alert System

In an effort to increase safety and security on our campus, Concord University encourages everyone to register for instant text message alerts. Alerts will only be used for security and safety notices. All students, faculty, and staff are eligible to receive text message alerts on their cell phones or email alerts. Please contact the IT Help Desk for further assistance (304-384-5291).

Emergency Information

Emergency/courtesy telephones are located at the main entrance of each residence hall and at various other locations on campus. Emergency telephones can be identified by the flashing blue light and will provide the user with a direct link to Public Safety at the press of a button. To report an on-campus emergency, call 304-384-5357 or 911. The Office of Public Safety is located on the bottom floor of the Rahall Technology Center. For further emergency information go to: <http://www.concord.edu/administration/office-public-safety>.

Inclement Weather Policy

As a general policy, the University will remain in normal operations during adverse weather conditions. In the event of severe weather conditions, the following may occur:

University Closure

No students or employees are to report.

Classes Cancelled

Students do NOT report BUT employees are expected to report to work at their normal time.

Operating on an Inclement Weather Delay

Under this schedule, all 8 a.m. classes will start at 10 a.m. Students and faculty will follow the Inclement Weather Schedule. (See <http://www.concord.edu/emergency-alerts> for Athens/Beckley Inclement Weather Schedules.)

**Announcements invoking the late schedule or other options referenced above are aired on area radio and television stations and are sent as text and email messages to those enrolled for this service.*

Student Conduct

In classrooms, online, laboratories, and during any activities that are part of course requirements, students are expected to observe reasonable rules of conduct.

Technology Services

Contact the CU Help Desk at extension 5291 from campus or 304-384-5291 off campus. You may also e-mail cuhelpdesk@concord.edu.

Syllabus Disclaimer

"This syllabus is subject to change based on the needs of the class. Please check it regularly."
