Frances, Allen. Essentials of Psychiatric Diagnosis, Revised: Responding to the Challenge of DSM-5. ISBN:1462513484 ISBN-13:9781462513482 Guilford Publications, Inc. 2013 This is not a textbook, but it's a very useful reference.

I plan to use Blackboard online for this class, but mostly for announcements (which should also go to your Concord email) and the gradebook. Exams, assignments, and lecture materials will usually be presented in class. Occasionally I will use online materials like video links, and I'll post those on Blackboard with my announcements.

Course Description: This course is specifically geared towards psychology majors who intend to pursue careers in clinical practice and medical students who will inevitably interact with patients who are also mentally ill. The primary goal of this class is to explore in some depth the topics of psychopathology and abnormal behavior. The term "abnormal psychology" covers a broad range of disorders, from depression to obsession-compulsion to sexual deviation and many more. A brief history of how mental illness was and is addressed in society and within the field of psychology will begin the course. Then, specific mental illnesses as labeled in the DSM manual will be covered throughout the semester. These illnesses will be presented by describing the prominent symptoms, etiologies, some cultural variants, most common treatment plans, and critical ethical issues for each disorder.

The main Concord University Educational Goal addressed by this course is "Skill #3": "Students will gain the ability to employ appropriate methods and technologies for conducting empirical and scholarly research in psychology, to interpret research findings, and to use insights gained from such research as a basis for informed decision making". No National Standards are required for this course.

Course Requirements:

There will be three unit exams, a comprehensive final exam, and about 3 written assignments.

The unit exams will be multiple-choice and essay. Exams will cover lecture material and the assigned readings and class video material. The unit exams will be "worth" 100 points each. See schedule below.

The final exam will be multiple choice and will be taken directly from the unit exams. It will be worth 200 points. See schedule below.

The written assignments will be worth 10 points. Due dates will be announced when the assignments are distributed.

Attendance: Regular attendance is expected to be necessary in order to pass the course, because topic material will be presented in lecture which does not appear in the readings. In addition, required assignments and additional text materials will be presented in class; students are responsible for these and "make-up" up materials may not be given to students missing class. Attendance will be considered when assigning final grades. Attendance is absolutely required during the scheduled exam times. Absolutely NO makeup tests will be given except for the following reasons: a) you are hospitalized during the test period, b) there is a death in your immediate family, c) you have a Concord-sponsored activity excuse, or d) you make arrangements with me early in the semester to accommodate a major life event (eg you are getting married or your spouse is having a baby). Absence from a test for other reasons will normally result in a grade of zero for that test. If you wish any absence to be considered for a make-up test, you MUST contact me via email, voice mail, or a dated message left with the Social Sciences office within 24 hours of the exam.

Make-up Policy:

Make up exams ONLY ONE make up exam will be given over the course of the semester, even for emergency reasons; any further missed exams will receive a grade of zero. Make up exams will be given on the last regular class period before final exams (see course schedule, below). If you have to take a make-up exam, I will gladly give you a copy of the original exam to study for the final.

Late work: Assignments must be turned in via hard-copy no later than the class period during which they are due. If you cannot come to class on the due date, you may email me the assignment by class time for it to be counted "on time", but you still must turn in a hard copy for me to grade within 2 weeks or you will earn a zero for that assignment. Late assignments will lose a letter grade and must be turned in before finals week.

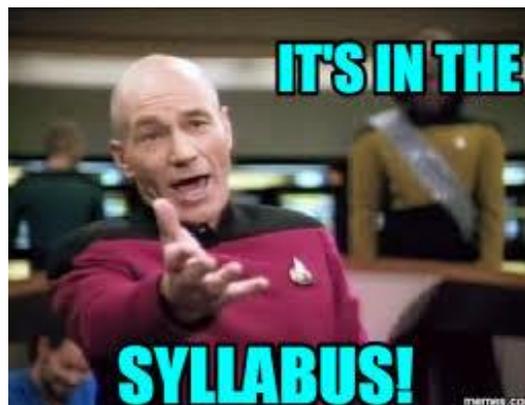

Grading Policy and Scale:

FINAL GRADES will be based primarily on the unit exams, assignments, and the final exam. Attendance, and maintaining a reasonable standard of conduct during the class and during office hours may affect your grade if your grade is "on the edge". You can generally figure your current grade in the class at any point during the semester by dividing the number of points you have earned thus far by the number of points possible thus far. The resulting percentages will earn the following letter grades:

90-100%=A; 80-89%=B; 70-79%=C ; 60-69%=D; 59% and below=F.

Course Timeline:

This course schedule is perfectly formatted to pin to a bulletin board or magnet onto a refrigerator or tape into a notebook. Please use it.

Accessibility/Accommodations:

Concord University is committed to responding to the needs of students with disabilities as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act. Please inform your instructor at the beginning of the class semester if you have a disability and are requesting accommodations. It is your responsibility to self-disclose that you are requesting accommodations. The University and instructor will provide you with a reasonable accommodation. You should register with CU's Disability Services Office, located in the Athens campus Jerry and Jean Beasley Student Center, Bottom Floor, across from the Campus Post Office. The Disability Services Office phone is 304-384-6086 or you can email the Director, Nancy Ellison, at nellison@concord.edu for assistance.

Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty is morally unacceptable as well as destructive to the learning and teaching atmosphere. Academic dishonesty includes the giving or receiving of improper help on examinations or assignments, falsifying documents, and plagiarism (the act of stealing and using, as one's own, the ideas or the expression of the ideas of another). Such dishonesty can lead to a variety of penalties — including but not limited to failure of assignment, failure of course, loss of institutional privileges, or dismissal from the University. (See University Catalog Academic Policies and Procedures.)

Concord University Honor Code

A Concord University Honor Code was approved by students, staff, faculty, administration, and the CU Board of Governors. The Code states:

"As a member of the Concord University Community I will act with honesty and integrity in accordance with our fundamental principles and I will respect myself and others while challenging them to do the same."

The Honor Code is intended to unite the Concord community behind a culture of honesty, integrity, and civility.

Class/Online Attendance Policy

Regular class attendance is part of a student's academic obligation at Concord. Irregular attendance may affect academic performance adversely and is detrimental to the atmosphere of a class. (See University Catalog Academic Policies and Procedures.)

Emergency Alert System

In an effort to increase safety and security on our campus, Concord University encourages everyone to register for instant text message alerts. Alerts will only be used for security and safety notices. All students, faculty, and staff are eligible to receive text message alerts on their cell phones or email alerts. Please contact the IT Help Desk for further assistance (304-384-5291).

Emergency Information

Emergency/courtesy telephones are located at the main entrance of each residence hall and at various other locations on campus. Emergency telephones can be identified by the flashing blue light and will provide the user with a direct link to Public Safety at the press of a button. To report an on-campus emergency, call 304-384-5357 or 911. The Office of Public Safety is located on the bottom floor of the Rahall Technology Center. For further emergency information go to:

<http://www.concord.edu/administration/office-public-safety>.

Inclement Weather Policy

As a general policy, the University will remain in normal operations during adverse weather conditions. In the event of severe weather conditions, the following may occur:

University Closure

No students or employees are to report.

Classes Cancelled

Students do NOT report BUT employees are expected to report to work at their normal time.

Operating on an Inclement Weather Delay

Under this schedule, all 8 a.m. classes will start at 10 a.m. Students and faculty will follow the Inclement Weather Schedule. (See <http://www.concord.edu/emergency-alerts> for Athens/Beckley Inclement Weather Schedules.)

Announcements invoking the late schedule or other options referenced above are aired on area radio and television stations and are sent as text and email messages to those enrolled for this service.*

Student Conduct

In classrooms, online, laboratories, and during any activities that are part of course requirements, students are expected to observe reasonable rules of conduct.

Sexual Harassment & Assault

Federal law, Title IX, and Concord University policy prohibits discrimination, harassment, and violence based on sex and gender (Including sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic/dating violence, stalking, sexual exploitation, and retaliation). If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you can receive confidential counseling support through the Concord University Counseling Center (304-384-5290). Alleged Violations can be reported non-confidentially to the Concord University Title IX Coordinator at 304-384-6327 or titleix@concord.edu. Reports to Campus Security can be made at (304-384-5357). As an employee at Concord University, I am a mandatory reporter which means I must report any sexual misconduct I am made aware of. This includes verbal or written (such as in an assignment) disclosures of sexual harassment or sexual assault.
