Course Description/Rationale:

This course will provide students with a solid foundation for understanding psychopathology and the knowledge and skills for psychological diagnosis in clinical work. The course will enhance student's abilities to distinguish between normal behavior and psychopathology, identify and classify symptoms into various psychological disorders and identify and understand common myths and stereotypes surrounding various disorders. Specific emphasis will be on understanding the contextual and individual factors related to diversity, equity, and resiliency, comprising internal and external resources that are essential for effective clinical practice

Course Management System (Blackboard/Moodle or other systems): Blackboard

One of the benefits of utilizing Blackboard (Bb) is taking into consideration the health and preservation of our environment. Hence, students are encouraged to reduce the amount of printing and are required to submit their written assignment via Blackboard.

Students will also be able to track points earned for assignments. The Professor will post announcements and email related to this course exclusively on Blackboard (Bb). Therefore, students are encouraged to Log into Bb daily and consistently throughout the semester.

Students who experience difficulties with Bb should contact the Help Desk

(cuhelpdesk@concord.edu or ext. 5291 on campus phone, or 304-716-0054 from off campus or cell phone). Students are also encouraged to review the “On Demand Help Video for Students” that is available on Blackboard.

In addition, email the professor through the Bb course messages immediately to explain the situation. If Bb is inaccessible due to the campus server being down), email your professor immediately to explain the situation. This procedure provides documentation of the date and time of the email and the situation. Attach the assignment to the email, if applicable.

Zoom Video Communication Platform:

Zoom video communication replaces the adobe connect platform for on-line sessions. It’s a user-friendly system that will be used for synchronous sessions. Students may also be able to utilize Zoom for meetings with fellow students for group assignments and/or to meet and support each other throughout the semester. Each professor will have their own login information their course. For more information about Zoom, students can log on to Zoom.us. For 24/7 technical support, go to support.zoom.us.

Hardware/Software Needed (include privacy policies, if applicable):

To be an effective participant in Concord’s University’s online courses in Blackboard (Bb), your computer needs to be up-to-date with the appropriate hardware and software, as follows:

Course Requirements:

COURSE EVALUATION:

Activity:	Grade Points:
Exams (4)	400
Weekly Activities/Discussion Board (6)	60
Research /Topic Paper	180
Total points:	640

1. Examinations: There will be four examinations. The exam questions will be taken from the material in the assigned readings. Format will be multiple choice and essay questions. Study guides will be provided.
2. Weekly Activity/Discussion Board: Each of the Learning Modules (12) will include an activity that will be relevant to the discussion question(s) for that modules. Each student must post an original comment and respond to at least two other student's posts. Posts must contain thoughtful responses, not merely agreement with another student.
3. Research/Topic Paper: Each student will complete a research paper. You will choose one psychological disorder from the DSM -5 and write a brief (10-12 pages) paper. You must use scholarly resources in addition to your texts. You will need to address the following topics in the paper:
 - The etiology of the chosen disorder.
 - The biological, psychological, social, and or genetic factors that cause or contribute to the development of the disorder
 - The major signs and symptoms of the disorder and manifestation in individuals
 - Current evidence based treatment options or interventions recommended for use
 - Controversial issues in the diagnosis and treatment of the disorder
 - The impact of using a strengths-based approach focusing on resiliency and cultural factors in assessment/treatment on the individual and family in establishing positive coping strategies
 - The impact of living in a rural environment on assessment, diagnosis and treatment of the disorder

The research paper must be written using the format of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association for in-text citations, reference lists, and paper format.

Grading Policy and Scale, Make-up Policy, Late Work:

The final course grade will be based upon the total number of points accumulated on the above activities:

- | | |
|---|------------------|
| A | 576-640 points |
| B | 512-575 points |
| C | 448-511 points |
| D | 354-447 points |
| F | Below 353 points |

Course Timeline (Schedule of Assignments/Assessments/Presentations):

See attached document

Accessibility/Accommodations:

Concord University is committed to responding to the needs of students with disabilities as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act. Please inform your instructor at the beginning of the class semester if you have a disability and are requesting accommodations. It is your responsibility to self-disclose that you are requesting accommodations. The University and instructor will provide you with a reasonable accommodation. You should register with CU's Disability Services Office, located in the Athens campus Jerry and Jean Beasley Student Center, Bottom Floor, across from the Campus Post Office. The Disability Services Office phone is 304-384-6086 or you can email the Director, Nancy Ellison, at nellison@concord.edu for assistance.

Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty is morally unacceptable as well as destructive to the learning and teaching atmosphere. Academic dishonesty includes the giving or receiving of improper help on examinations or assignments, falsifying documents, and plagiarism (the act of stealing and using, as one's own, the ideas or the expression of the ideas of another). Such dishonesty can lead to a variety of penalties — including but not limited to failure of assignment, failure of course, loss of institutional privileges, or dismissal from the University. (See University Catalog Academic Policies and Procedures.)

Concord University Honor Code

A Concord University Honor Code was approved by students, staff, faculty, administration, and the CU Board of Governors. The Code states:

"As a member of the Concord University Community I will act with honesty and integrity in accordance with our fundamental principles and I will respect myself and others while challenging them to do the same."

The Honor Code is intended to unite the Concord community behind a culture of honesty, integrity, and civility.

Class/Online Attendance Policy

Regular class attendance is part of a student's academic obligation at Concord. Irregular attendance may affect academic performance adversely and is detrimental to the atmosphere of a class. (See University Catalog Academic Policies and Procedures.)

Emergency Alert System

In an effort to increase safety and security on our campus, Concord University encourages everyone to register for instant text message alerts. Alerts will only be used for security and safety notices. All students, faculty, and staff are eligible to receive text message alerts on their cell phones or email alerts. Please contact the IT Help Desk for further assistance (304-384-5291).

Emergency Information

Emergency/courtesy telephones are located at the main entrance of each residence hall and at various other locations on campus. Emergency telephones can be identified by the flashing blue light and will provide the user with a direct link to Public Safety at the press of a button. To report an on-campus emergency, call 304-384-5357 or 911. The Office of Public Safety is located on the bottom floor of the Rahall Technology Center. For further emergency information go to:

<http://www.concord.edu/administration/office-public-safety>.

Inclement Weather Policy

As a general policy, the University will remain in normal operations during adverse weather conditions. In the event of severe weather conditions, the following may occur:

University Closure

No students or employees are to report.

Classes Cancelled

Students do NOT report BUT employees are expected to report to work at their normal time.

Operating on an Inclement Weather Delay

Under this schedule, all 8 a.m. classes will start at 10 a.m. Students and faculty will follow the Inclement Weather Schedule. (See <http://www.concord.edu/emergency-alerts> for Athens/Beckley Inclement Weather Schedules.)

Announcements invoking the late schedule or other options referenced above are aired on area radio and television stations and are sent as text and email messages to those enrolled for this service.*

Student Conduct

In classrooms, online, laboratories, and during any activities that are part of course requirements, students are expected to observe reasonable rules of conduct.

Sexual Harassment & Assault

Federal law, Title IX, and Concord University policy prohibits discrimination, harassment, and violence based on sex and gender (Including sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic/dating violence, stalking, sexual exploitation, and retaliation). If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you can receive confidential counseling support through the Concord University Counseling Center (304-384-5290). Alleged Violations can be reported non-confidentially to the Concord University Title IX Coordinator at 304-384-6327 or titleix@concord.edu. Reports to Campus Security can be made at (304-384-5357). As an employee at Concord University, I am a mandatory reporter which means I must report any sexual misconduct I am made aware of. This includes verbal or written (such as in an assignment) disclosures of sexual harassment or sexual assault.

Technology Services

Contact the CU Help Desk at extension 5291 from campus or 304-384-5291 off campus. You may also e-mail cuhelpdesk@concord.edu.pe

Mental Health Resources

Concord University recognizes that being a student can be stressful at times for a number of reasons some of which may be related to the challenge of balancing your role as a student with other facets in your life. There are a number of resources to help you cope if you find that you are overwhelmed. The first is the CU Counseling Center which is located on the third floor of the Jerry and Jean Beasley Student Center on the Athens Campus. The center is staffed by a licensed mental health professional, graduate students, and student employees. Appointments are available Mon-Fri from 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM. Appointments at the Erma Byrd Higher Education Center in Beckley may be made by arrangement. Students may call the counseling center at 304-384-5290 or make their own appointment through the electronic scheduling system which may be found on Counseling Center section of the Student Services tab on CU's main page. Counseling services are free of charge. Other resources available are Student Support Services and the Academic Success Center on the Athens campus.
