Specific Learning Outcomes:

Rationale:

This course provides educators with knowledge of various disabilities and giftedness, identifying and serving students in a variety of educational settings, including the regular classroom. Emphasis is placed on federal and state regulations and laws, identification of students with special needs, the behavioral and academic characteristics of each exceptionality, and the provision of services for students who qualify for special education.

Course Requirements:

All assignments will be submitted electronically through blackboard and submitted on the due date by midnight. Blackboard will also be used for online instruction (dates are assigned on course schedule). Be aware that emails from the instructor will be through the Concord email addresses. A list serve for each class has been developed through blackboard so that all class members can be contacted easily. It is your responsibility, therefore, to both know your Concord email and Blackboard email and to check it on a regular basis.

Many of the assignments for this course require the use of the Internet and a word processor. You will need access to both. Computer labs and library computers are available to you at specified times. If you do not have a computer of your own, please take note of those times and plan accordingly. Your assignments will be submitted electronically, you must flash drive to which you can save copies of your work as backup in the event that something “cyber” occurs! NOTE: You must use MS Word for all work submitted electronically. Additional information regarding the use of technology will be provided during class meetings.

Late Assignment Policy

- Any assignment not submitted via Blackboard (date/time) is subject to a 25% deduction of the overall point value per day. No assignment will be accepted, and no points will be awarded after four (4) calendar days from the due date (including weekends).
- If there are technical problems submitting an assignment, email the professor through the regular email (ktucker@concord.edu) immediately and explain the situation. Attach the assignment to the email (if applicable).
- If email is not possible, call the professor's office phone at (304) 384-5293 immediately and leave a detailed voicemail message explaining the situation.

It is suggested that students attempt to submit work early to avoid possible problems with the system or other problems. Any late work will be subjected to the terms of the above policy

NOTICE TO CELL PHONE OWNERS/USERS: Cell phone usage (including text messaging) is not permitted during class sessions; therefore, you should turn off your cell phone when you enter class. Violating this policy may result in removal/withdrawal from class.

Attendance

Class attendance is paramount to the successful completion of this course. Students are expected to attend all class meetings for the entire time allotted. Students will earn 100 points for attendance. After student misses two class meetings, the student's final course grade will be dropped one letter for each additional class missed.

Class Participation

Participation includes completion of all reading and written assignments prior to the class meeting. Students are expected to be actively engaged in their learning through knowledgeable discussion and interaction during class. Group discussions are frequently incorporated into classroom instruction. Participation in these activities is mandatory.

In order to understand the concepts of the course and to engage in meaningful class discussions and group work, it is imperative that students view the online associated materials for each chapter prior to the on-campus meeting.

Accessibility/Accommodations:

Concord University is committed to responding to the needs of students with disabilities as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act. Please inform your instructor at the beginning of the class semester if you have a disability and are requesting accommodations. It is your responsibility to self-disclose that you are requesting accommodations. The University and instructor will provide you with a reasonable accommodation. You should register with CU's Disability Services Office, located in the Athens campus Jerry and Jean Beasley Student Center, Bottom Floor, across from the Campus Post Office. The Disability Services Office phone is 304-384-6086 or you can email the Director, Nancy Ellison, at nellison@concord.edu for assistance.

Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty is morally unacceptable as well as destructive to the learning and teaching atmosphere. Academic dishonesty includes the giving or receiving of improper help on examinations or assignments, falsifying documents, and plagiarism (the act of stealing and using, as one's own, the ideas or the expression of the ideas of another). Such dishonesty can lead to a variety of penalties — including but not limited to failure of assignment, failure of course, loss of institutional privileges, or dismissal from the University. (See University Catalog Academic Policies and Procedures.)

Concord University Honor Code

A Concord University Honor Code was approved by students, staff, faculty, administration, and the CU Board of Governors. The Code states:

"As a member of the Concord University Community I will act with honesty and integrity in accordance with our fundamental principles and I will respect myself and others while challenging them to do the same."

The Honor Code is intended to unite the Concord community behind a culture of honesty, integrity, and civility.

Class/Online Attendance Policy

Regular class attendance is part of a student's academic obligation at Concord. Irregular attendance may affect academic performance adversely and is detrimental to the atmosphere of a class. (See University Catalog Academic Policies and Procedures.)

Emergency Alert System

In an effort to increase safety and security on our campus, Concord University encourages everyone to register for instant text message alerts. Alerts will only be used for security and safety notices. All students, faculty, and staff are eligible to receive text message alerts on their cell phones or email alerts. Please contact the IT Help Desk for further assistance (304-384-5291).

Emergency Information

Emergency/courtesy telephones are located at the main entrance of each residence hall and at various other locations on campus. Emergency telephones can be identified by the flashing blue light and will provide the user with a direct link to Public Safety at the press of a button. To report an on-campus emergency, call 304-384-5357 or 911. The Office of Public Safety is located on the bottom floor of the Rahall Technology Center. For further emergency information go to:

<http://www.concord.edu/administration/office-public-safety>.

Inclement Weather Policy

As a general policy, the University will remain in normal operations during adverse weather conditions. In the event of severe weather conditions, the following may occur:

University Closure

No students or employees are to report.

Classes Cancelled

Students do NOT report BUT employees are expected to report to work at their normal time.

Operating on an Inclement Weather Delay

Under this schedule, all 8 a.m. classes will start at 10 a.m. Students and faculty will follow the Inclement Weather Schedule. (See <http://www.concord.edu/emergency-alerts> for Athens/Beckley Inclement Weather Schedules.)

Announcements invoking the late schedule or other options referenced above are aired on area radio and television stations and are sent as text and email messages to those enrolled for this service.*

Student Conduct

In classrooms, online, laboratories, and during any activities that are part of course requirements, students are expected to observe reasonable rules of conduct.

Sexual Harassment & Assault

Federal law, Title IX, and Concord University policy prohibits discrimination, harassment, and violence based on sex and gender (Including sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic/dating violence, stalking, sexual exploitation, and retaliation). If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you can receive confidential counseling support through the Concord University Counseling Center (304-384-5290). Alleged Violations can be reported non-confidentially to the Concord University Title IX Coordinator at 304-384-6327 or titleix@concord.edu. Reports to Campus Security can be made at (304-384-5357). As an employee at Concord University, I am a mandatory reporter which means I must report any sexual misconduct I am made aware of. This includes verbal or written (such as in an assignment) disclosures of sexual harassment or sexual assault.

Technology Services

Contact the CU Help Desk at extension 5291 from campus or 304-384-5291 off campus. You may also e-mail cuhelpdesk@concord.edu.
