Your assignments in this course will include:
1. Selecting and refining a research topic, which you will use for the remaining class assignments, to certain questions that I pose to you regarding the process you went through to determine that topic; (NOTE: You will not be required to write a research paper. You are only choosing a topic so you can complete the research assignments in the class.)

2. Locating various types of reference materials in the Concord Library that may be helpful to you in your research;

3. Constructing keyword searches concerning your topic and submit 5 searches that you did;

4. Learning to use and searching the Online Catalog – MLN, UMI Periodical Index, other indexes and sources of abstracts;

5. Learning APA citation style;

6. Preparing a bibliography; and

7. Preparing a literature review and research paper outline. Each assignment is designed to use a specific tool to identify relevant materials or to make critical judgments as to the relevance, reliability, and importance of different materials.

Grading Policy and Scale, Make-up Policy, Late Work:

The skills taught in this course represent a minimum level of competence needed to function effectively in a library and a web environment. Among your assignments, you will be required to develop an annotated bibliography and a research paper outline. Additionally, there will be quizzes throughout the term.

Accessibility/Accommodations:

Concord University is committed to responding to the needs of students with disabilities as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act. Please inform your instructor at the beginning of the class semester if you have a disability and are requesting accommodations. It is your responsibility to self-disclose that you are requesting accommodations. The University and instructor will provide you with a reasonable accommodation. You should register with CU’s Disability Services Office, located in the Athens campus Jerry and Jean Beasley Student Center, Bottom Floor, across from the Campus Post Office. The Disability Services Office phone is 304-384-6086 or you can email the Director, Nancy Ellison, at nellison@concord.edu for assistance.

Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty is morally unacceptable as well as destructive to the learning and teaching atmosphere. Academic dishonesty includes the giving or receiving of improper help on examinations or assignments, falsifying documents, and plagiarism (the act of stealing and using, as one’s own, the ideas or the expression of the ideas of another). Such dishonesty can lead to a variety of penalties — including but not limited to failure of assignment, failure of course, loss of institutional privileges, or dismissal from the University. (See University Catalog Academic Policies and Procedures at http://catalog.concord.edu/content.php?catoid=10&navoid=582#Academic_Dishonesty.)

Concord University Honor Code

A Concord University Honor Code was approved by students, staff, faculty, administration, and the CU Board of Governors. The Code states:

"As a member of the Concord University Community I will act with honesty and integrity in accordance with our fundamental principles and I will respect myself and others while challenging them to do the same."
The Honor Code is intended to unite the Concord community behind a culture of honesty, integrity, and civility.

Class/Online Attendance Policy

Regular class attendance is part of a student’s academic obligation at Concord. Irregular attendance may affect academic performance adversely and is detrimental to the atmosphere of a class. (See University Catalog Academic Policies and Procedures at http://catalog.concord.edu/content.php?catoid=10&navoid=582#Class_Attendance.)

Emergency Alert System

In an effort to increase safety and security on our campus, Concord University encourages everyone to register for instant text message alerts. Alerts will only be used for security and safety notices. All students, faculty, and staff are eligible to receive text message alerts on their cell phones or email alerts. Please go to https://concord.omnilert.net/subscriber.php to sign up for the Emergency Alert System or contact the IT Help Desk for further assistance (304-384-5291).

Emergency Information

Emergency/courtesy telephones are located at the main entrance of each residence hall and at various other locations on campus. Emergency telephones can be identified by the flashing blue light and will provide the user with a direct link to Public Safety at the press of a button. To report an on-campus emergency, call 304-384-5357 or 911. The Office of Public Safety is located on the bottom floor of the Rahall Technology Center. For further emergency information go to https://www.concord.edu/Student-Life/Office-of-Public-Safety/Alert-Systems.aspx.

Inclement Weather Policy

As a general policy, the University will remain in normal operations during adverse weather conditions. In the event of severe weather conditions, the following may occur:

   University Closure
   No students or employees are to report.

   Classes Cancelled
   Students do NOT report BUT employees are expected to report to work at their normal time.

   Operating on an Inclement Weather Delay
   Under this schedule, all 8 a.m. classes will start at 10 a.m. Students and faculty will follow the Inclement Weather Schedule. (See https://www.concord.edu/Student-Life/Office-of-Public-Safety/Inclement-Weather-Schedule.aspx for Athens/Beckley Inclement Weather Schedules.)

   *Announcements invoking the late schedule or other options referenced above are aired on area radio and television stations and are sent as text and email messages to those enrolled for this service.

Student Conduct

In classrooms, online, laboratories, and during any activities that are part of course requirements, students are expected to observe reasonable rules of conduct.
Mental Health Resources

Concord University recognizes that being a student can be stressful at times for a number of reasons some of which may be related to the challenge of balancing your role as a student with other facets in your life. There are a number of resources to help you cope if you find that you are overwhelmed. The first is the CU Counseling Center which is located on the third floor of the Jerry and Jean Beasley Student Center on the Athens Campus. The center is staffed by a licensed mental health professional, graduate students, and student employees. Appointments are available Mon-Fri from 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM. Appointments at the Erma Byrd Higher Education Center in Beckley may be made by arrangement. Students may call the counseling center at 304-384-5290 or make their own appointment through the electronic scheduling system which may be found on Counseling Center section of the Student Services tab on CU’s main page. Counseling services are free of charge. Other resources available are Student Support Services and the Academic Success Center on the Athens campus.

Sexual Harassment & Assault

Federal law, Title IX, and Concord University policy prohibits discrimination, harassment, and violence based on sex and gender (Including sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic/dating violence, stalking, sexual exploitation, and retaliation). If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you can receive confidential counseling support through the Concord University Counseling Center (304-384-5290). Alleged Violations can be reported non-confidentially to the Concord University Title IX Coordinator at 304-384-6327 or https://www.concord.edu/Student-Life/Title-IX.aspx. Reports to Campus Security can be made at (304-384-5357). As an employee at Concord University, I am a mandatory reporter which means I must report any sexual misconduct I am made aware of. This includes verbal or written (such as in an assignment) disclosures of sexual harassment or sexual assault.

Technology Services

Contact the CU Help Desk at extension 5291 from campus or 304-384-5291 off campus. You can find additional information at https://www.concord.edu/About/Important-Offices-Centers/Technology-Services/Help-Desk-Support.aspx.
